

{TIP}

Kids are masters of technology. Even if it takes some effort, familiarize yourself with all of your child's devices. Make sure smartphones, tablets, laptops – and game consoles – are secure. Teach your children how to protect their identities and personal information.